ORAL ORDER

- 2 03-08-2023 1. Heard learned counsel for the petitioner and learned APP for the State.
2. Petitioner seeks regular bail in connection with Bikram P.S. Case No. 29 of 2022 dated 23.01.2022 registered for the offence punishable under Section 302 read with Section 34 of the Indian Penal Code.
3. The main submissions advanced by petitioner's counsel are that as per allegation levelled in the FIR, this petitioner inflicted a rod blow at the chest of the informant's father, who later on died, but as per the postmortem report of the deceased, any injury on his body, deformity to any part of his body, fracture or dislocation of any bone have not been found by the doctor concerned and the investigation has been completed against the petitioner and this petitioner and co-accused persons have been chargesheeted under Section 304 of I.P.C. and co-accused Shambhu Yadav against him there is specific allegation, has been granted bail by a co-ordinate Bench of this Court vide order passed in Cr. Misc. No. 52210 of 2022. Further submissions are that the FIR clearly goes to show that the alleged offence was not pre-planned and the same took place in the spur of moment while measuring the disputed land. Further submissions are that the petitioner has been languishing in jail since 26.04.2023 having fair and clean antecedent.

4. Learned APP appearing for the State has opposed the prayer for bail.

5. Considering the above submissions and mainly taking into account the nature of allegation appearing against this petitioner as well as the genesis of the occurrence and the findings given by the medical expert in the postmortem report regarding the injuries on the body of the deceased and also, taking into account the completion of investigation against this petitioner, this Court is inclined to accept the petitioner's prayer for bail. Accordingly, let the petitioner named-above be enlarged on bail on furnishing bail bond of Rs. 10,000/- (ten thousand)

with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of the concerned Court in connection with Bikram P.S. Case No.
29 of 2022.
