registered for the offence(s) punishable under Section(s) 401, motorcycle was suspected to be stolen on account of non-production of relevant vehicular papers by the accused persons and petitioner's mobile phone was also seized by the police.

Further submissions are that prior to institution of the FIR there was one criminal case against this petitioner but after the institution of the present FIR he was dragged into two other criminal cases and in the present matter, he has been languishing in jail since 27.04.2023 and against him, the investigation has been completed. Further submissions are that the petitioner is a very young person and the alleged motorcycle which was suspected to be stolen was not recovered from the conscious possession of this petitioner.
