learned APP for the State.

The petitioner has prayed for regular bail in a case registered for the offence punishable under sections 272, 273, of the Indian Penal Code and Section 30(a) Bihar Prohibition and Excise Act.

As per prosecution case, the petitioner was apprehended on the spot and from courtyard of his house total 252 liters Nepali liquor was recovered.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is innocent and has committed no offence. He has falsely been implicated in this case. The petitioner has no concern with the alleged recovery rather the incriminating liquor was recovered from his joint house. It is further submitted that nothing has been recovered from his conscious possession. Moreover, the petitioner is languishing in judicial custody since 22.04.2023.

Learned APP appearing for the state has opposed the prayer of regular bail.

Having heard learned counsel for the parties and considering the facts and circumstances of the case as well as custody of the petitioner, this court is inclined to enlarge the petitioner on bail.
