CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE SUNIL KUMAR PANWAR
ORAL ORDER

3      12-09-2023                      Heard learned counsel for the petitioner and learned APP for the State.

2. The petitioner has prayed for bail in a case instituted for the offence under Sections 341, 342, 307, 302/34 of the Indian Penal Code.

3. The allegation against the petitioner along with others is of pouring petrol oil upon the body of the informant and set her on fire, due to which she became unconscious and during course of treatment she died.

4. It is submitted by learned counsel for the petitioner that petitioner has been falsely implicated in this case. He has committed no offence. He submitted that the deceased had love affair and upon denial to get marriage from her love, she committed suicide by way of pouring oil and the family members admitted her in hospital, when she died due to 90% burn injury and the said fact has been admitted by the father of the deceased by way of affidavit. Petitioner is languishing in judicial custody 07.06.2023.

5. Learned APP for the State has opposed the application for bail and submitted that petitioner is named in the FIR. There is specific allegation of pouring petrol oil upon the deceased and set her on fire is against the petitioner, due to which she succumbed to injury. He further submitted that the brother of the deceased corroborated the prosecution case in his statement recorded u/s 164 of the Cr.P.C., which is mentioned in vide para-43 of the case diary. As per postmortem report, it appears that the cause of death was burn injury, which corroborates the prosecution case. During investigation several witnesses have also supported the prosecution case.

6. Having heard the learned counsel for the parties and considering the nature of allegation, this court is not inclined to enlarge the petitioner on bail and, as such, his prayer for bail stands rejected.

7. The trial Court is directed to conclude the trial expeditiously.
