ORAL ORDER

2 20-01-2023 The learned counsel for the petitioner is directed to remove all the defects pointed out by the Stamp Reporter within one month.

Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner as well as learned APP for the State.

The petitioner apprehends his arrest in connection with Alipur P.S. Case No. 74 of 2022, registered for the offences punishable under Sections 341, 323, 307, 325, 354, 504, 506/34
of the Indian Penal Code.

As per allegation, the petitioner alleged that the informant had a hand in enticing away his sister-in-law and assaulted him with iron rod on his head.

The learned counsel for the petitioner has submitted that sister-in-law of the informant was enticed away by someone else and he has submitted that injuries are simple in nature. He has submitted further that injury no. 1 was found simple in nature and in respect of injury no. 2 on the person of the informant, the opinion was reserved, but later on, it was found to be simple. He has also submitted that the petitioner is a person of clean antecedent.

On the other hand, the learned APP has opposed the prayer for bail and submitted that the petitioner had badly assaulted the informant on his vital part and he has sustained two injuries. It appears that there is enmity between the parties. The FIR shows itself that the petitioner has made allegation against the informant that he has enticed away his sister-in-law. The petitioner is a person of clean antecedent and the injuries are simple in nature.

Considering the above-mentioned facts and circumstances, let the petitioner, in the event of his arrest or surrender within four weeks before the learned court below, be released on anticipatory bail on furnishing bail bond of Rs. 10,000/- (Ten Thousand) with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of Ms. Priyanshu Sharma, learned Judicial Magistrate, 1st Class, Gaya in connection with Alipur

P.S. Case No. 74 of 2022, subject to the conditions as laid down under Section 438(2) Cr.P.C.

Office shall ensure that all defects are removed by the petitioner within the stipulated time provided hereinabove, failing which the matter shall be brought to the notice of this Court.
