In this case, the petitioner is seeking regular bail in connection with Lalganj P.S. Case No. 302 of 2019, registered for the offences punishable under Sections 341, 323, 307, 504, 506, 34 of the Indian Penal Code and Section 27 of the Arms Act.

As per allegation, the petitioner opened fire, which hit at the knee of the informant.

The learned counsel for the petitioner has submitted that both the parties are agnates. Admittedly, there is land dispute between the parties and the petitioner is under custody since 29.04.2022.

On the other hand, the learned APP for the State and the learned counsel for the informant have opposed the prayer for bail and submitted that the informant has sustained grievous fire arm injuries in his leg. They have submitted further that there are three other cases against the petitioner, to which the learned counsel for the petitioner replied that in all those cases, the petitioner has been granted bail.

Considering the above-mentioned facts and circumstances as well as period of custody, let the petitioner above-named be released on bail on furnishing bail bonds of Rs.10,000/- with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of learned court of Sobhana Swetanki, Judicial Magistrate-1st Class, Vaishali in connection with Lalganj P.S.
