The petitioner has prayed for regular bail in a case registered for the offence punishable under sections 341, 323, 354B, 307, 379, 504, 506/34 of the Indian Penal Code.

As per prosecution case, the allegation against the accused persons including the petitioner is that they due to money dispute they assaulted the informant's son due to which he sustained injury. It is further alleged that they also outraged the modesty of the informant.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is innocent and has committed no offence. He has falsely been implicated in this case due to previous money dispute. As per Annexure-2, the injured sustained injury which was caused by hard and blunt substance but the doctor has not opined regarding nature of injuries, he has only given his opinion and during investigation no one stated that the petitioner caused the injury by hard and blunt substance. It is further submitted that the petitioner has got no criminal antecedent. Moreover, he is languishing in judicial custody since 10.04.2023.

Learned APP appearing for the state has opposed the prayer of regular bail.

Having heard learned counsel for the parties and considering the facts and circumstances of the case as well as custody of the petitioner, this court is inclined to enlarge the petitioner on bail. The above named petitioner is directed to be released on bail in connection with Sadar Muffasil P.S. Case No. 143 of 2023 on furnishing bail bond of Rs.10,000/- (ten thousand) with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of learned concerned Court.
