APP for the State.

The petitioner has prayed for regular bail in a case registered for the offence punishable under sections 414, 467, 468 of the Indian Penal Code.

As per prosecution case, the petitioner was apprehended on the spot and from his possession one stolen motorcycle was recovered.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is innocent and has committed no offence. He has falsely been implicated in this case merely on the basis of suspicion. The petitioner is a handicapped person and during recovery he was going for dressing of his leg wound and for reaching hospital he had only taken lift from one Ravi

Kumar , but when he saw police officials were coming he fled away from the place of recovery and due to suspicion the petitioner has made accused in this case. It is further submitted that section 100 of the Cr.P.C. has not been followed while preparing the seizure list. The petitioner has got no criminal antecedent. Moreover, he is languishing in judicial custody since 13.05.2023. This case is traible by Judicial Magistrate.

Learned APP appearing for the state has opposed the prayer of regular bail.

Having heard learned counsel for the parties and considering the facts and circumstances of the case as well as custody of the petitioner, this court is inclined to enlarge the petitioner on bail. The above named petitioner is directed to be released on bail in connection with Fatehpur P.S. Case No. 335 of 2023 on furnishing bail bond of Rs.10,000/- (ten thousand) with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of learned concerned Court.
