APP for the State.

The petitioner has prayed for regular bail in a case registered for the offence punishable under sections 304B, 201, 34 of the Indian Penal Code and charge sheet has been submitted under Sections 302, 201, 34 of the I.P.C..

As per prosecution case, the allegation against the accused persons including the petitioner is that they committed murder of the informant's daughter due to non-fulfillment of dowry demand. It is further alleged that they also burnt dead body of the deceased for the purpose of hiding the evidence.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is innocent and has committed no offence. The petitioner is husband of the deceased due to which he has falsely been implicated in this case. He has got no criminal antecedent. The informant is not an eye witness of the alleged occurrence and there is no prior complaint of dowry demand and ill treatment lodged against the petitioner rather the deceased died due to Covid-19. The marriage of the petitioner with the deceased was solemnized in 2013 and out of their wedlock four children were born and they were living their conjugal life happily. It is further submitted that the petitioner is languishing in judicial custody since 23.07.2022.

Learned APP appearing for the state has opposed the prayer of regular bail.

Having heard learned counsel for the parties and considering the facts and circumstances of the case as well as custody of the petitioner, this court is inclined to enlarge the petitioner on bail. The above named petitioner is directed to be released on bail in connection with Muffasil (Nawada) P.S.
