CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE SATYAVRAT VERMA
ORAL ORDER

13 11-07-2023 Heard learned counsel for the petitioner, learned counsel for the informant and learned A.P.P. for the State.

The petitioner apprehends his arrest in a case
registered for the offences punishable under Sections 498(A) and 494 of the Indian Penal Code.

Learned A.P.P. submits that yesterday the matter was taken out of turn when the District Education Officer, Buxar and Treasury Officer, Buxar were present in the Court and the District Education Officer submitted that the petitioner has not provided the copy of the order passed by the learned Trial Court by which maintenance amount was fixed to be paid to the informant after deducting the same from his salary.

The learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner undertakes that he will abide by the order of the learned Trial Court and shall ensure that the maintenance amount as fixed is received by the informant in time and on monthly basis. It is also submitted that the arrears which has accrued shall also be paid but in installments.

The learned counsel for the informant does not dispute the submission of the learned counsel for the petitioner.

Considering the submissions made by the learned counsel for the petitioner, the petitioner above-named, in the event of his arrest or surrender before the learned trial court within a period of six weeks from today, be released on anticipatory bail on furnishing bail bonds of Rs. 5,000/- (Rupees Five Thousand) with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of the learned trial court where the case is pending/successor court in connection with Complaint Case No. 917(C) of 2017 subject to the conditions as laid down under Section 438 (2) of the Cr.P.C.

However, it is made clear that in the event if for two consecutive months for any reason the amount is not credited in the account of the informant, the informant shall be at liberty to file an application seeking cancellation of the present anticipatory bail order of the petitioner.
