As per FIR, when informant with other police personnel were on petrolling duty, they secret informatin about selling of stolen motorcycle by someone near Fatima fuel at 10 o'clock night. For verification of informant, informant with other police personnel reached at fatima fuel. After seeing the Police all accused persons stated to flee, but three person got apprehended by police and two persons managed their escape.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is innocent and has been falsely implicated in this case. He submits that apprehended persons disclosed the name of the petitioner that he is also involved in the present case.
