learned A.P.P appearing on behalf of the State.

The petitioner is languishing in custody in a case registered for the offences punishable under Sections 302, 201, 120(B) of the Indian Penal Code.

The prosecution case as per F.I.R. is that on 22.02.2022 at 8:00 A.M., informant's daughter went to market for learning computer works but she did not return back. On the very next day, informant knew about the killing of her daughter, namely, Soni Kumari by some unknown person and her dead body was found nearby a petrol pump.

It is submitted by learned counsel for the petitioner that petitioner is innocent and he has falsely been implicated in this case. The petitioner is not named in the F.I.R. The informant is not the eye witness to the occurrence. There is no direct and consistent material evidence against the petitioner and only on the basis of confessional statement of co-accused, namely, Sarwan Kumar, the name of the petitioner came into light.
