APP for the State.

2. The petitioner has prayed for regular bail in a case registered for the offence punishable under section 394 of the Indian Penal Code.

3. Allegation against the two unknown miscreants is that they stopped the bike of the informant and assaulted the informant along with his brother and thereafter, they snatched the bag of the informant on gun point and in the bag, there were laptop, three mobiles, two finger print devices and cash of Rs. 2 lakhs.

4. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is innocent and has committed no offence. He has falsely been implicated in this case merely on suspicion. The

Neither any looted article has been recovered from the conscious possession of the petitioner nor he has been put on TIP as yet. 5. Learned APP appearing for the state has opposed the prayer of regular bail.

6. Having heard learned counsel for the parties and considering the facts and circumstances of the case as well as custody of the petitioner, this court is inclined to enlarge the petitioner on bail. The above named petitioner is directed to be released on bail in connection with Chandramandih P.S.
