CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE SANJEEV PRAKASH SHARMA

ORAL JUDGMENT

Date : 17-03-2023

1. Learned counsel for the petitioner has moved an application for impleading the U.P.L. as a party to the writ petition as the N.T.P.C. claims the petitioner to be an employee appointed on contract labour by the U.P.L., whereas the petitioner claims N.T.P.C. to be his actual employer.

2. The dispute raised by the petitioner with regard to this oral removal/retrenchment can be raised directly before the concerned Labour Court in terms of the provision of Section 10 (A) of the Act of 1947. Granting liberty to the petitioner, this Court holds that the impleadment of U.P.L. in the present case, the writ petition would have no purpose as this Court would not mean a position to examine factual aspects.

3. The writ petition is accordingly dismissed with liberty as above.
