Appearance :

For the Petitioner/s : Mr.Bhaskar Shankar, Advocate

For the Opposite Party/s : Mr.Md. Iftexhar Mahmood, APP

CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE RAJIV ROY ORAL ORDER

4 14-02-2023 In this case, the anticipatory bail application was disposed of on 08.02.2023.

Learned counsel for the petitioner has pointed out that the matter was taken up on Wednesday but in the first paragraph, it has been inscribed as follows :

“ Heard learned counsel for the petitioner and learned APP for the State in Virtual Court Proceeding.”

It is his further submission that while declining the anticipatory bail application, this Court had also given observations on the circumstances, if the petitioner chooses to surrender, which is also missing.

Accepting the words of the learned counsel for the petitioner as also the fact that there is anomaly in paragraph-1 of the petition, the same is modified to the following extent.

The first paragraph be read as follows:

“(i) Heard learned counsel for the petitioner and learned APP for the State.”

Similarly the concluding paragraph be read as follows:

“If the petitioner surrenders within a period of four weeks from today, the concerned Court shall take into account the factors available on record without being prejudiced by any observations made herein and pass an appropriate order, preferably on the same day.”

The order dated 08.02.2023 stands modified as above.
