CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE PARTHA SARTHY
ORAL ORDER

4 17-01-2023 Heard learned counsel for the parties.

The petitioner has preferred this application for grant of regular bail in a case registered under sections 302, 120B and 34 of the Indian Penal Code.

As per the prosecution case, it is stated by the informant police personnel that the petitioner was married twice having three daughters from his first wife Sheela Devi. First wife of the petitioner and the three daughters died and their bodies were recovered from a canal. The news was published in the newspaper. The informant states that inspite of the news, the petitioner did not respond and his mobile was found to be switched off which appeared to be suspicious.

It is submitted by learned counsel for the petitioner that the petitioner has been falsely implicated in the case by the informant. Except for an unsubstantiated suspicion raised by the informant in the FIR, no material has transpired in course of investigation to connect him even remotely with the alleged crime. He is in custody since 29.6.2021, has no criminal antecedent and chargesheet has been submitted in the case.

Heard learned APP for the State.

Having heard learned counsel for the parties and taking into consideration the nature of the material that has transpired in course of investigation together with the petitioner having remained in custody for 1 year 6 months since 29.6.2021 and chargesheet having been submitted in the case, the petitioner is directed to be enlarged on bail in connection with Nokha P.S. Case no. 193 of 2019 on furnishing bail bond of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand) with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of the learned Additional Chief Judicial Magistrate, VI, Rohtas at Sasaram.
