counsel for the informant and learned APP for the State.

The petitioner has prayed for regular bail in a case registered for the offence punishable under section 304B, 328, 120B and 201/34 of the Indian Penal Code.

As per prosecution case, informant alleged that his daughter was solemnized with the son of the petitioner. After some time her daughter was tortured for demand of Rs.
Two lacs. It is further alleged that petitioner along with other co-accused persons took her daughter on the pretext of Dham. On 24.08.2021 he got information by the Ayodhya police that her daughter has been murdered by the petitioner and they gave false information to the Kotwali P.S. Ayodhya that his daughter-in-law is died due to drawn in the Saryug river.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is innocent and has committed no offence. The petitioner is father-in-law of the victim due to which, he has falsely been implicated in this present case. The petitioner has no concern mess and business of the victim as well as her husband and he was living separately from them. There is no eye-witness of the alleged occurrence. Further, Para 29 of the case diary clearly shows that only four persons reached at Ayodhya and the victim was not with them. He has got no criminal antecedent. Moreover, the petitioner is languishing in judicial custody since 30.08.2021.

Learned APP appearing for the state and learned counsel for the informant have vehemently opposed the prayer of regular bail.

Having heard learned counsel for the parties and considering the facts and circumstances of the case, this court is inclined to enlarge the petitioner on bail. The above named petitioner is directed to be released on bail in connection with Yogapati P.S. Case No. 366 of 2021 on furnishing bail bond of Rs.10,000/- (ten thousand) with two
