ORAL ORDER

7 10-08-2023 Heard learned counsel for the petitioner and the learned A.P.P. for the State.

2. The petitioner seeks bail, who is in custody since 12.07.2022 in connection with Chandramandi P.S. Case No. 121 of 2022, F.I.R. dated 11.07.2022 registered for the offence punishable under Sections 302,120(B)/34 of IPC.

3. Allegation against the petitioner is of administering poison to his wife as a result of which she died.

4. Learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submits that the petitioner has clean antecedent. He has falsely been implicated in the present case. The allegation as alleged in the FIR is false and fabricated and the petitioner has not committed any offence as alleged in the FIR and as per FIR allegation against the petitioner is that he had given poison to his wife.

5. Learned APP for the State, on the other hand, on the basis of the material available on the record and the case diary, has vehemently opposed the prayer for bail of the petitioner and submits that the allegation as alleged in the FIR is supported by medical evidence i.e. postmortem report and viscera report and apart from that, the report dated 26.07.2023 of the learned Trial Court reveals that out of nine chargesheet witnesses, four witnesses have already been examined.

6. Considering the aforesaid facts, I am not inclined to enlarge the petitioner on bail in connection with Chandramandi P.S. Case No. 121 of 2022 pending in the court of learned S.D.J.M., Jamui.

7. Prayer is refused.

8. However, the learned Trial Court is directed to expedite the trial and conclude the same at the earliest.
