2015 has not been complied, therefore, the present contempt petition-MJC No. 3647 of 2019 is filed. It is necessary to reproduce Para 14 of the order dated 27.03.2019, it reads as under:-

“We, accordingly, allow the writ petition and declare that the petitioners will continue to get the same salary that they were getting prior to the impugned resolution together with all arrears on that account that shall be released forthwith within a period of three months from today.”

2. The present contempt petition is filed in the month of September, 2019. Perusal of show-cause and document at Annexure-A dated 18.07.2023. Secretariat Official has directed his sub-ordinate to settle the grievances of the petitioners while complying the orders of this Court.

3. There is an enormous delay of about three and half years, and that too partially complying order, in other words, it is a paper order. The petitioners have not been paid monetary benefits in the light of the orders of this Court. Therefore, the opposite parties are liable to pay the cost, and it is quantified at Rs.3000/- (Rupees Three Thousand Only) to each of the petitioner. Cost shall be paid from the department within a period of two months from the date of receipt of this order. In the meanwhile, sub-ordinate officials to the Secretariat are hereby directed to execute the order dated 18.07.2023 vide

Annexure-A to the show-cause at the earliest while disbursing monetary benefits to each of the petitioner.

4. With the above observation the present contempt petition stands dropped. Reserving liberty to the petitioners to file Interlocutory Application to recall the present order in the event of non-compliance of the observation made in the present order.
