ORAL ORDER

2 11-04-2023 Heard learned counsel for the petitioners and learned APP for the State.

The petitioners apprehend their arrest in connection with Dumra P.S. Case No. 225 of 2022 for the offence registered under sections 448, 341, 323, 354, 307, 504 and 34 of the Indian Penal Code.

As per the prosecution story, the informant alleged that her piece of land was illegally taken over by the petitioner side and upon protest, allegation is that she was assaulted by them forcing her to get herself treated at IGIMS, Patna. Accordingly, the FIR.

Learned counsel for the petitioners submit that the lady being their aunt, they cannot even think of assaulting her and further without accepting the allegation and/or the outcome of the present case, they would like to contribute Rs. 25,000/- towards her medical assistance in view of the fact that some simple injury has been shown (Annexure 2) of Sadar Hospital, Sitamarhi where on the first occasion, she was treated.

Learned APP for the State, on the other hand, opposes the prayer for anticipatory bail.

Considering the fact that none of the petitioners have criminal antecedent, omnibus allegation is there, this Court is inclined to extend them privilege of anticipatory bail subject to payment of Rs. 25,000/- to the informant through Demand Draft issued by the local State Bank of India branch in favour of the informant.

Let the petitioners in the event of arrest or surrender within a period of four weeks from the date of receipt of the order, shall be released on anticipatory bail on furnishing bail of Rs. 10,000/- (ten thousand) each with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of the learned C.J.M., Sitamarhi in connection with Dumra P.S. Case No. 225 of 2022 subject to condition as laid down under Section 438(2) of the Cr.P.C.
