ORAL ORDER

2 25-04-2023 Heard both the parties.

2. The petitioner seeks bail in anticipation of his arrest in connection with Complaint Case No. 159-C/2022 dated 28.01.2022, instituted for the offences under Sections 323, 498(A) and 494 of the I.P.C. and Section 3/4 of D.P. Act.

3. The allegations are against the petitioner under Section 498(A), 494. The learned counsel appearing for the lady prosecutrix states that she is now leaving with her husband.

4. Having noticed that the husband of the wife is pleased to compromise which is appreciable. I am inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner and it is made clear that both the parties shall admit to live peacefully and cooperate each other, and in the event of arrest, he shall be released on bail, subject to the conditions as laid down under Section 438(2) of the Cr.P.C., which are held as under:-

(i) The petitioner shall cooperate with the investigation and make himself available for interrogation whenever required.

(ii) The petitioner shall not directly or indirectly make any inducement, threat or promise to any witness acquainted with the facts of the case so as to dissuade him from disclosing such facts to the court or to any police officer,

(iii) The petitioner shall not obstruct or hamper the police investigation and not play mischief with the evidence collected or yet to be collected by the police;

(iv) The petitioner shall maintain law and order;

(v) The petitioner shall, at the time of execution of the bond, furnish his address and mobile number to the investigating officer, and the court concerned, and shall not change the residence till the final disposal of the case;

(vi) The petitioner shall surrender his passport, if any, before the investigating officer within a week and, if he does not possess any passport, he shall file an affidavit to that effect before the investigating officer;

(vii) The petitioner shall regularly remain present during the trial and cooperate with the Hon’ble Court to complete the trial for the above offences.
