CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE ANJANI KUMAR SHARAN
ORAL ORDER

2 29-11-2023 Heard the parties.

2. The petitioner apprehends her arrest in a case registered for the offence punishable under Sections 420 and 406 of the Indian Penal Code.

3. The prosecution case is that, the petitioner and co-accused has sold a piece of land in fraudulent manner which was purchased by the complainant.

4. It is submitted by learned counsel for the petitioner that petitioner is quite innocent and have committed no offence. She has been falsely implicated in this case. No such occurrence, in the manner as alleged, has ever taken place. The allegation levelled against the petitioner is not specific rather general and omnibus in nature. He submits that there is a civil dispute between the parties. He further submits that some order has been passed by the Civil Authority in favour of the petitioner. Petitioner has no criminal antecedent.

5. Learned Senior Counsel for the complainant as well as learned APP for the State opposed the prayer for anticipatory bail by submitting that the land in question does not belongs to the petitioner and yet sold the same to another person.

6. Having regard to the facts and circumstances of the case as well as considering that there is a civil dispute between the parties, let the above named petitioner, be released on bail, in the event of his/her arrest or surrender before the learned Court below within a period of six weeks from today, on furnishing bail bond of Rs. 25,000/- (Rupees Twenty Five Thousand) with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of the learned court below where the case is pending/Successor Court in connection with Complaint Case No.1373 of 2022, subject to the conditions as laid down under Section 438(2) of the Cr.P.C.
