Learned counsel appearing on behalf of the petitioner

submitted that the petitioner has been falsely implicated in the present case, where allegation is appearing very much superficial and omnibus in nature. It is submitted that no transaction as demanded under the threat of life as alleged was made. It is further submitted that allegation to advance threat is available against co-accused, Mantu Yadav. It is also submitted that informant and others rescued by their own efforts and only to aggravate the allegation present false allegation was raised, which is evident from the fact that despite of approaching police at the place of occurrence itself, the F.I.R. was lodged after lapse of four days, without any just explanation. While concluding the argument, it is submitted that petitioner found involved in one more case, where he is on bail and moreover, investigation of this case has been completed, for which, charge-sheet has already submitted, as such, there is no chance of tampering with the evidence.

Learned APP appearing on behalf of the State, opposes the prayer for bail.

In view of the facts and circumstances as mentioned above as allegation against this petitioner is appearing general and omnibus, where thrust of allegation is available against co-accused Mantu Yadav, as to raise demand for cash of Rs.
