and regarding the said property, a Title Suit is also going on in between them and the informant of the present matter is relative of the uncle of the petitioner and there is no serious allegation against this petitioner. Further submissions are that as per the allegation, this petitioner inflicted an iron-rod blow at the back of the informant and the same is specific allegation against him and the informant's injury report has been filed as Annexure-P3, which goes to show that on the back of the informant only an abrasion was found and two other injuries, which were found in the form of swelling, have been opined to be simple in nature.

4. Learned APP appearing for the State has opposed the prayer for bail of the petitioner.
