ORAL ORDER

2 28-03-2023 Heard learned counsel for the petitioner as well as learned
APP for the State.

The petitioner apprehends his arrest in a case registered for the offence punishable under Sections 363, 366 of the Indian Penal Code.

The allegation against the petitioner is that he is involved in the kidnapping of the married daughter of the informant.

It is submitted by learned counsel for the petitioner that petitioner is quite innocent and have committed no offence. He has been falsely implicated in this case. No such occurrence, in the manner as alleged, has ever taken place. The allegation levelled against the petitioner is not specific rather general and omnibus in nature. There is no specific overt act against the petitioner. There is no eye witness in the present case to support the prosecution case. He further submits that the victim girl has already been recovered by the police and she has not supported the allegation of kidnapping against the petitioner in her statement recorded u/s 164 of Cr.PC. The victim, herself, stated that her husband namely, Rajesh Yadav was mentally ill, therefore, she fled away with the petitioner. Petitioner has no criminal antecedent.

Learned APP for the State opposed the prayer for anticipatory bail.

Having regard to the facts and circumstances of the case, let the above named petitioner, be released on bail, in the event of his/her arrest or surrender before the learned Court below within a period of six weeks from today, on furnishing bail bond of Rs. 25,000/- (Rupees Twenty Five Thousand) with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of the learned court below where the case is pending/Successor Court in connection with Jalley P.S. Case No.64 of 2022, subject to the conditions as laid down under Section 438(2) of the Cr.P.C.
