A.P.P. for the State.

2. The petitioner apprehends his arrest in Complaint
Case No. 1770C of 2022 registered for the offences punishable under Sections 376, 420 of the Indian Penal Code and Section 3/4 of Dowry Prohibition Act.

3. Allegedly, petitioner is said to have developed illicit relations with the complainant on the pretext of marriage, but later on, started demanding Rs. 2 lakhs as dowry and ultimately, refused for performing the marriage.

4. It is submitted by learned counsel for the petitioner that petitioner is quite innocent and has committed no offence.
No such occurrence as alleged ever took place. He has been falsely implicated in this case due to ulterior motive. The allegation levelled against the petitioner is not specific rather general and omnibus in nature. There is love affairs between the parties. Later on, matter has been compromised by both the parties. Petitioner has no criminal antecedent as mentioned in para-3 of this application.

6. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case as well as nature of the offence, I am not inclined to enlarge him on anticipatory bail. The prayer for anticipatory bail of the petitioner is hereby rejected.

7. However, if the petitioner surrenders before the learned Court below within six weeks from today and seeks regular bail, the learned Court below shall pass order on the same day in accordance with law without being prejudiced by this order considering the fact that there is compromise between the parties.
