APP for the State.

The petitioner has prayed for regular bail in a case instituted for the offence under Sections 363 and 376D of the IPC, Sections 4/6 of the POCSO Act and Sections 3, 4 and 5 of the Immoral Traffic (Prevention) Act.

As per prosecution case, the informant's daughter was going to coaching at Mangala Asthan along with her two brothers. It is further alleged that the informant's daughter did not reach there and her family members started to search but she was traceless.

It is submitted by learned counsel for the petitioner that petitioner has been falsely implicated in this case. She has committed no offence. Petitioner is not named in the FIR. The victim girl has been recovered and medically examined, after examination the doctor observed in the report, that there is no external injury on the body of the private parts except mild abrasion upon the left hand. He submitted that petitioner is a lady and has been made accused only for the reason that her husband namely, Md. Sunny has been made accused. There is no specific overt act against the petitioner. Petitioner has got no criminal antecedent as stated in para-3 of the bail petition. She is languishing in judicial custody since 22.10.2022.

The application for bail is opposed by learned APP for the State.

Having heard learned counsel for the parties and considering the facts and circumstances of the case as well as petitioner being a lady, this court is inclined to enlarge the petitioner on bail. The above named petitioner is directed to be enlarged on bail on furnishing bail bond of Rs. 10,000/- (Rs. ten thousand only) with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of the learned Additional Sessions Judge-VI-cum-
