The husband of the writ petitioner was a

(in short 'DPL'), which is a Government of West Bengal enterprise.

The husband of the petitioner expired on December 16, 2019. The gratuity dues of the writ petitioner aggregating Rs.4,56,562/- was paid on August 16, 2021. Neither quantum of gratuity nor the date of payment is in dispute.

behalf of the writ petitioner prays for interest on gratuity payable to the writ petitioner from December 17, 2019 (the date succeeding the date of expiry of the husband of the writ petitioner) till August 16, 2021

(the date on which the gratuity dues were actually paid).

The learned counsel, appearing on behalf of the writ petitioner, also prays for earned leave of 274.5 days which has not been paid till date. He further prays for interest on the earned leave, due and payable to the writ petitioner's husband.

The number of days of earned leave, due and payable to the petitioner is not in dispute.

The issue has been squarely settled by various Judgements passed by a Co-ordinate Bench of this Hon'ble Court.

Relying on the judgements on the same issue and considering the facts of the case it is directed that the writ petitioner is entitled to get interest on the delayed payment of her gratuity dues from December 17, 2019 till August 16, 2021 at the rate of 6% per annum.

The writ petitioner is also entitled to earned leave of 274.5 days and interest thereon @ 6% per annum from December 17, 2019 till the date on which the actual payment is made.

The respondent authority/DPL is directed to pay the aforesaid payment within six months from date. In the event, the said amount is not disbursed within the stipulated period, the rate of interest will stand enhanced to 10% per annum being the statutory rate under the payment of Gratuity Act, 1972.

With the directions aforesaid, the writ petition, being WPA 566 of 2023, is disposed of.

Since no affidavits have been called for in the writ petition, the allegations contained therein be deemed not to have been admitted by the respondents.

Needless to mention, in case the petitioner has occupied the quarter granted by the employer after his retirement the occupation charges for the said quarter will be deducted from the retiral benefits that the petitioner is entitled to as per the extant rules and policies of the employer/DPL.
