Petitioner is in custody for 130 days. Investigation is complete. It is submitted she is not the principal accused. She prays for bail.

Learned lawyer for the State opposes the prayer for bail.

We have considered the materials on record including the statements of the survivor and her daughter. Petitioner is not the principal accused. Accuseds had taken the survivor to the hospital. Petitioner had bore the expenses.

In view aforesaid circumstances, we are inclined to grant bail to the petitioner.

Accordingly, the petitioner be released on bail upon furnishing a bond of Rs. 10,000/- with two sureties of like amount each, one of whom must be local to the satisfaction of the learned CJM Howrah on condition that the petitioner shall appear before the trial court on every date of hearing and shall not intimidate witnesses or tamper with evidence in any manner whatsoever.

. In the event she fails to appear before the trial court without justifiable cause, the trial court shall be at liberty to cancel her bail automatically without reference to this court.

The application being CRM (DB) 129 of 2023 is disposed of.
