In re : An Application for Anticipatory Bail under Section 438 of the Code of Criminal Procedure in connection with Goalpokher Police Station Case No. 185 of 2022 dated 23.05.2022 under Sections 379 of the Indian Penal Code. Corresponding to GR case no. 1340 of 2022.

... .. For the Petitioners

Mr. S. S. Imam,
Mr. Arabinda Manna, Advocates
... ...For the State

Petitioners pray for anticipatory bail.

Learned advocate appearing for the petitioners submits that the petitioners were falsely implicated. There is a title suit pending between the private parties. The disputes are civil in nature.

Learned advocate appearing for the State draws the attention of the Court to the materials in the case diary.

Apparently, the de facto complainant is the purchaser of an immovable property where a tea garden is located. There is a title suit filed against some of the petitioners herein. In such title suit, it is claimed that defendants therein did not have any right, title and interest in respect of the suit property.

The petitioners herein claimed title through one Baburam Saren.

Apparently, Baburam Saren sold and transferred the registered immovable property concerned for valuable consideration by a registered deed of conveyance.

In such circumstances, the complicity of the petitioners needs to be investigated.

Consequently, we are unable to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

Prayer for anticipatory bail of the petitioners is rejected.

CRM (A) 223 of 2023 is dismissed.
