C.O. 213 of 2023

Raj Kumar Daga
Vs
Mrituyunjoy Burman

Mr. Dyutiman Banerjee.

... For the petitioner.

A direction to secure expeditious disposal of Title Suit No. 281 of 2016 pending before the learned Civil Judge (Senior Division), 7th Court, Alipore, is the ultimate relief sought for in this case.

The only contention expressed by the petitioner is against the delay caused in the disposal of the suit, as the argument of this case has already been concluded on 10th August, 2022, but till date judgment has not yet been delivered, resulting in delay to the disposal of this case.

No other point is raised requiring address by this Court.

In view of the nature of the order proposed to be made in the case, no prior notice is considered to be necessary.

Service upon the opposite party is thus dispensed with.

Accordingly, learned Civil Judge (Senior Division), 7th Court, Alipore in Title Suit No. 281 of 2016 is requested to ensure expeditious disposal of case referred hereinabove, with the delivery of judgment in accordance with law, providing sufficient opportunity of hearing to either of the parties to this case, but without granting unnecessary adjournment, unless it is extremely unavoidable, preferably within period of ten weeks from the date of communication of this order to the learned court below, if necessary upon pre-poning the matter and upon issuing notice to the both the parties.

Petitioner is directed to make communication of this order to the learned court below as well as to the learned advocate appearing in the court below for the opposite party and the opposite party.

With this observation and direction, the revisional application stands disposed of.

Urgent photostat certified copy of the order, if applied for, be given to the parties on usual undertakings.
