Gopal Acharya.
Vs.
The State of West Bengal & Anr.

Mr. Narayan Prasad Agarwala,
Mr. Pratick Bose,
.....for the State.

State is represented by learned advocate Mr. Narayan Prasad Agarwala and Mr. Pratick Bose. It appears that the administrative notice was served upon the petitioner as well as the private opposite party. They received the notice personally by signing upon the notice.

None appears on behalf of the petitioner as well as the private opposite party in spite of receiving of the notice. Accordingly, it appears that the petitioner is not interested to proceed with this matter further. Thus, the instant criminal revisional application is hereby dismissed for default.

Any interim order passed by this Court during the pendency of the instant criminal revisional application is also vacated. Any connected CRAN applications if pending is also disposed of.

All parties shall act on the server copy of this order duly downloaded from the official website of this Court.
