

Maheswar Mahato
Vs.
The State of West Bengal & Ors.

1. The parties are not represented nor any accommodation is prayed for on behalf of the parties.

2. The appeal had appeared in the warning list of cases on and from 19th September, 2023 with a clear indication that the said matter shall be transferred to the Regular Bench on 6.10.2023. The appeal was appeared on 6.10.2023 and is again listed today. All the parties have sufficient notice about the listing of the matter before the Regular Bench on and from 6th October, 2023.

3. The appeal was filed on 08.9.2014. The record shows that no attempt has been made to move this appeal after it was filed. No step has been taken to serve notice and prepare paper books. It clearly shows that the appellant is not interested to proceed with the appeal.

4. However, having considered the materials on record we are of the view that the learned Single Judge was justified in not interfering with the order of suspension in view of the fact that the disciplinary proceeding was under contemplation at the relevant point of time.

5. In view of the above, the appeal is accordingly dismissed.
