Court is informed that the petitioner stands arrested in respect of police case which is the subject matter of CRM (A) 191 of 2023.

While considering the application for anticipatory bail being CRM (A) 191 of 2023, we issued a Rule on January 17, 2023 against the petitioner to show cause as to why the anticipatory bail granted to the petitioner in CRM (A) 4203 of 2022 be not cancelled.

In response to Rule, petitioner filed an affidavit.

The second police complaint was lodged at the behest of the de facto complainant making serious allegations as against the petitioner.

There are materials in the case diary incriminating the petitioner in the second police case. The incriminating materials were noted in the order dated January 17, 2023 while issuing Rule.

We are constrained to find that the petitioner is guilty of post bail misconduct. Therefore, we deem it appropriate to cancel the anticipatory bail granted to the petitioner in CRM (A) 4203 of 2022 dated September 5, 2022. All consequential steps taken thereon are also cancelled.

CRR 318 of 2023 in CRM (A) 191 of 2023 is disposed of accordingly.
