(Item No. ML 28)
(AB)

IN THE HIGH COURT AT CALCUTTA
Constitutional Writ Jurisdiction
Appellate Side

W.P.A. 3273 of 2023

Biswajit Saha
VS
The State of West Bengal & Ors.

Mr. Krishna Pada Santra
..... for the petitioner

Affidavit of service filed in Court today, is taken on record.

The petitioner was an approved Clerk-cum-Typist at Haringhata Matri Vidyalaya, District – Nadia. He had retired from his employment on January 31, 2019.

The pension payment order was issued by the concerned respondent on January 24, 2019 and ROPA part was issued on April 26, 2022.

Under ROPA Rules, 2019, there was a revision of Pension, Gratuity and computation of Pension of the pensioner and the revised pension payment order of the petitioner under ROPA, 2019 was issued on April 26, 2022.

The petitioner now claims interest for the delayed payment of the said gratuity and arrear pension on and from January 1, 2020.

None appeared for the State.

It is trite that, the pension, which is lawfully payable to an employee is its property and if there is any delay in making such payment and the disbursement thereof in favour of such employee, such an employee is eligible and entitle to receive interest.

In view of the above, the respondents and or the Director of Public Instruction and the concerned Treasury Officer are directed to pay interest on the revised gratuity and on arrear pension @ 8% per annum on and from the date of entitlement till the date of actual payment being received by the petitioner in terms of the revised pension payment order.

The entire exercise as directed above, shall be carried out and completed positively by the respondents and or the Director of Public Instruction and the concerned Treasury Officer within a period of eight weeks from the date of communication of this order. In default, the said arrear amounts and the entitlement of the petitioner shall carry an additional interest of 2% per annum till the date the petitioner actually receives the same.

Since affidavits are not called for, the allegations made in the writ petition are deemed not to have been admitted by the respondents.

On the above terms, this writ petition being WPA 3273 of 2023 stands disposed of.

There shall, however, be no order as to costs.

Urgent certified photo copy of this order, if applied for, be supplied to the parties expeditiously on compliance of usual legal formalities.
