In Re:- An application for anticipatory bail under Section 438 of the Code of Criminal Procedure in connection with Jetia Police Station Case No. 60 of 2022 dated 21.06.2022 under Sections 420/406 of the Indian Penal Code.

And

In Re : Mousumi Debnath

..... petitioner

Mr. Shibaji Kumar Das

Ms. Rupsa Sreemani

....for the petitioners

Mr. P. K. Dutta

Mr. Santanu Deb Roy

....for the State

There is a previous police complaint at the behest of the petitioner.

Apparently, the petitioner was working as a 'maid servant' where, she was improperly dealt with. Therefore, the police complaint was lodged by the petitioner.

There is an issue of false implication of the petitioner.

In such circumstances, we grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

Accordingly, we direct that in the event of arrest the petitioner shall be released on bail upon furnishing a bond of Rs.10,000/-, with two sureties of like amount each, to the satisfaction of the arresting officer and also be subject to the conditions as laid down under Section 438(2) of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 and on further condition that the petitioner shall cooperate with the Investigating Officer till the conclusion of the investigation and on condition that the petitioner shall appear on every date before the jurisdictional Court on and from the date fixed for appearance of the accused and in default the jurisdictional Court will pass appropriate order to secure the presence of the petitioner in Court including cancelling the anticipatory bail granted without further reference to this Court.

This application for anticipatory bail is, thus, allowed.
