..... for the State

Heard the learned Counsels for the parties.

We have considered the materials on record. Petitioners are the relations of the wife of the victim. Victim-husband had committed suicide. He had not left behind any suicide note implicating the petitioners. In view of the aforesaid circumstances and period of detention suffered by the petitioners, we are inclined to grant bail to them.

Accordingly, we direct that the petitioners shall be released on bail upon furnishing a bond of Rs.10,000/- each with two sureties of like amount each, one of whom must be local, to the satisfaction of the learned Additional Chief Judicial Magistrate, Ranaghat, Nadia, subject to condition that the petitioners shall appear before the trial court on every date of hearing until further orders and shall not intimidate the witnesses and/or tamper with evidence in any manner whatsoever.

In the event the petitioners fail to appear before the trial court without justifiable cause, the trial court shall be at liberty to cancel their bail in accordance with law without further reference to this Court.

The application for bail is, accordingly, allowed.
