C.O. No. 620 of 2022

Kalidas Roy

Versus

Anjali Enterprise

Mr. Tanmay Chowdhury,
Ms. Ritoprita Ghosh

...for the Petitioner.

The petitioner is the plaintiff in Title Suit No.63 of 2015, which is pending before the learned Civil Judge (Junior Division), 1st Court at Baruipur, District-South 24-Parganas.

It is submitted that the matter was posted in the peremptory board on two occasions. That examination of the PW1 was complete. Thereafter, an application was filed for addition of party.

This Court is of the view that considering the age of suit, a prayer for expeditious disposal is reasonable.

An order of expeditious disposal of any litigation enures to the benefit of all the parties and hence prior service of this revisional application upon the opposite parties is not required. The prayer is innocuous.

Under such circumstances, the revisional application is disposed of with a direction upon the learned court below to dispose of the pending application within a period of one month from the next date fixed, upon granting opportunity to all the parties to contest the said application. Thereafter, the suit shall be disposed of within a year from the disposal of the application, strictly in accordance with law and independently. Unnecessary adjournments shall not be granted to any of the parties.

This Court has neither gone into the merits of the suit nor into the merits of the application.

A copy of the revisional application along with a server copy of this order be served upon the opposite party within a week.

The revisional application is, thus, disposed of.

There will be, however, no order as to costs.

Parties are to act on the basis of the server copy of this order.
