.....for the State

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the private respondents as employers of the petitioner withheld his salary, thus committing criminal breach of trust. An FIR was registered after a direction was passed under Section 156(3) of the Code. However, no charge-sheet has been submitted till date. Nor were the private respondent arrested.

Learned counsel appearing for the State submits a report, which is taken on record, and submits that the investigating agency is in the process of submitting a final report in this case.

I have heard the learned counsels and have perused the writ petition and the report filed by the State.

As the investigating agency is in the process of deciding on the fate of investigation and filing report in a final form, the same may be done at the earliest.

In the event the petitioner is aggrieved with the same, it shall be open to him to challenge the same by filing a protest petition before the learned criminal Court.

As such, no further order need be passed in this case.

Accordingly, the writ petition is disposed of without any order as to costs.

Urgent certified photocopy of this order, if applied for, be supplied to the parties expeditiously on compliance of usual legal formalities.
