JAYANTA CHATTOPADHYAY AND ORS

VS

SRI PANKAJ DAS

Mr. Kaustav Chandra Das

.....for the petitioners.

The petitioners pray for expeditious disposal of all the pending applications which have been filed in connection with Title Suit No. 720 of 2018, pending before the learned Civil Judge (Junior Division) 6th Court, Alipore.

The prayer of the petitioners is innocuous. Neither party stands to lose if a proceeding is disposed of expeditiously. In fact, such expeditious disposal shall enure to the benefit of the parties. Hence, there is no requirement for service of prior notice upon the opposite party.

The revisional application is disposed of with a direction upon the learned court below to dispose of all the pending applications within three months from the next date fixed. Adequate opportunity shall be granted to the parties to contest the same. Thereafter, the suit shall be disposed of within two years from the disposal of the applications.

This court has not expressed any opinion on the merits of the applications and the suit. The learned court shall proceed independently and in accordance with law.

A copy of the revisional application along with a server copy of this order be served upon the opposite party and/or the learned advocate contesting the matter on behalf of the opposite party in the learned court below, within a week.

The revisional application is accordingly disposed of.

There shall be no order as to costs.

Parties are to act on the server copy of this order.
