Ashoka Hawaii and Shoes Private Limited
vs.
Indian Overseas Bank and others

Mr. Subhankar Nag
Mr. Avishek Guha

... for the petitioner

The petitioner is the appellant in the Appeal No.85 of 2022, which is pending before the learned Debts Recovery Appellate Tribunal at Kolkata. The petitioner submits that the appeal is required to be disposed of expeditiously. It is submitted that no other applications are pending and the appeal is otherwise ready for hearing.

Under such circumstances, this court is of the view that justice would be subserved, if the learned court below is directed to dispose of the appeal, on an urgent basis.

This court has not gone into the merits of the appeal. An order of expeditious disposal of any litigation, enures to the benefit of all the parties. Hence, prior service of this revisional application upon the opposite party, would not be necessary. The prayer is innocuous.

The revisional application is disposed of with a direction upon the learned court below to dispose of the pending appeal within a period of four months from the next date fixed, without granting unnecessary adjournments to either of the parties and upon granting adequate opportunity to the opposite party to contest the proceedings. The learned court below shall proceed strictly in accordance with law and independently.

Petitioner is directed to serve a copy of this revisional application along with the server copy of this order upon the opposite party.

Accordingly, the revisional application is disposed of.

All the parties are directed to act on the basis of the server copy of this order.
