Jakir Sk.
Vs.
State of West Bengal

Mr. Avinaba Patra
.... For the petitioner.

The instant revisional application has been preferred against the order dated February 13, 2017 passed by the learned Judge, Special Court under the N.D.P.S. Act in connection with Special Case No.64 of 2016 under Section 18(C)/20 of the N.D.P.S Act, 1985.

Learned advocate appearing on behalf of the petitioner submits that Special Case pending before the learned Special Judge cum Additional Sessions Judge, 3rd Court, Malda is disposed of acquitting the present petitioner from the case, after finding the petitioner to be not guilty in the alleged offence. He prayed for necessary order.

Heard the learned advocate perused the copy of the judgment passed by the learned Special Judge in Special Case No. 64 of 2016 corresponding the Sessions Trial Case No. 6 of 2018. It appears that the entire Special case has been disposed of finding the present petitioner to be not guilty. Thus, further proceeding of the present revisional application is become infructuous. Accordingly, the criminal revisional application is disposed of being infructuous.

Any order of stay or/and all corresponding the orders passed by this Court during the continuation of the instant criminal revisional application are also vacated.

Any pending connected applications are also disposed of.

All parties shall act on the server copy of this order duly downloaded from the official website of this Court.
