C.O. No. 1214 of 2023
Golam Rahaman Mallick
Versus
Jadu Sardar

Md. Hasanuz Zaman

...for the Petitioner.

The petitioner prays for expeditious disposal of the Title Suit No.98 of 2007 along with the pending application, which are pending before the learned Civil Judge (Junior Division), 2nd Court at Bauripur, South 24-Parganas.

Considering the age of the suit, this Court is of the view that justice would be sub-served if the application and the title suit are disposed of expeditiously.

An order of expeditious disposal of any litigation enures to the benefit of all the parties and hence prior service of this revisional application upon the opposite party is not required.

The prayer is innocuous.

Under such circumstances, the revisional application is disposed of with a direction upon the learned court below to dispose of the pending application, if any, within a period of two months from the next date fixed, strictly in accordance with law and independently. Thereafter, the suit shall proceed and be disposed of within one year, upon granting opportunities to the opposite party to contest the proceeding. Unnecessary adjournments shall not be granted to any of the parties.

This Court has neither gone into the merits of the suit nor into the merits of the application.

A copy of the revisional application along with a server copy of this order be served upon the opposite party within a week.

The revisional application is, thus, disposed of.

There will be, however, no order as to costs.

Parties are to act on the basis of the server copy of this order.
