In Re:- An application for bail under Section 439 of the Code of Criminal Procedure in connection with Tamluk P. S. Case No.184 of 2023 dated 27.02.2023 under Sections 420/406/408/467/468/469/477/120B of the Indian Penal Code and added Sections 66/66B of the I. T. Act, 2000.

In the matter of : Sumona Mondal @ Sumana Mondal.
.... Petitioner.

Md. Sabir Ahmed,
Ms. Suman Biswas.

...for the Petitioner.

Mr. Swapan Banerjee,
Mr. Suman De.

...for the State.

Petitioner submits she is in custody for 60 days. Allegations are false. Further detention for progress of investigation is not necessary. She prays for bail.

Learned Advocate for the State opposes the bail prayer. He submits petitioner had fraudulently transferred confidential data of the company to an outsider.

We have considered the materials on record. Allegations involved breach of confidentiality by the petitioner. Stolen data has been traced out and identified. Further detention for progress of investigation is not necessary.

Under such circumstances and as petitioner is a lady and there is little possibility of her abscondence, we are not inclined to grant bail to the petitioner.

Accordingly, the petitioner viz., Sumona Mondal @ Sumana Mondal shall be released on bail upon furnishing a bond of Rs.10,000/- with two sureties of like amount each, one of whom must be local, to the satisfaction of the learned Chief Judicial Magistrate, Purba Medinipur at Tamluk subject to condition that she shall appear before the trial court on every date of hearing until further orders and shall not intimidate witnesses or tamper with evidence in any manner whatsoever.

In the event the petitioner fails to appear before the Trial Court without any justifiable cause, the trial Court shall be at liberty to cancel her bail in accordance with law without further reference to this Court.

The application for bail is, thus, disposed of.
