

55 20.09.
Ct 2023
237

rup

CRR 1603 of 2018
Saira Bibi
Versus
The State of West Bengal & Anr.

Ms. S. Bhattacharyya ... for the petitioner.

Mr. Manoranjan Mahata. ...for the State.

1. Learned advocate appearing on behalf of the petitioner is present.
2. Learned advocate appearing on behalf of the State has submitted Case Diary along with status report, wherefrom it is seen that Cossipore P.S. Case No. 152 dated 14th July, 2014 ended with FRT.
3. Thus being the position, the instant revisional application for transfer of that particular case being Cossipore P.S. Case No. 152 dated 14th July, 2014 is liable to be dismissed being infructuous.
4. Accordingly, the revisional application stands disposed of.
5. Let the status report be kept with the record.
6. Case Diary be returned.
7. Liberty is being given to the petitioner to make necessary correction of address of opposite party no. 2.

(Bibhas Ranjan De, J.)