And

In Re: Md. Nowsad Ali @ Nowsad Ali @ Md. Noyshad Ali
... .. Petitioner

Mr. Tapodip Gupta
... .. for the petitioner

Mr. Antarikhya Basu
... .. for the State

It is submitted on behalf of the petitioner that no narcotics was recovered from his possession. Accordingly, he prays for bail.

Learned Advocate for the State opposes the prayer for bail and submits petitioner has criminal antecedents. He had been arrested in a similar case.

We have considered the materials on record. We find that no narcotic substance was recovered from the possession of the petitioner and his complicity has transpired from the statement of co-accused before a police officer which is inadmissible in evidence. Under such circumstances, we are of the opinion petitioner has been able to rebut the statutory restrictions under Section 37 of the NDPS Act. In view of the aforesaid fact, we are of the opinion further detention of the accused/petitioner is not necessary and he may be enlarged on bail however, subject to strict conditions.

Therefore, the accused/petitioner, namely Md. Nowsad Ali @ Nowsad Ali @ Md. Noyshad Ali, be released on bail upon furnishing bond of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten thousand only), with two sureties of like amount each, one of whom must be local, to the satisfaction of the learned Judge, Special Court, under the NDPS Act-cum-Additional District Judge, 2nd Court, Berhampore, Murshidabad subject to condition that the said petitioner shall appear before the trial court on every date of hearing until further orders and shall not intimidate witnesses or tamper with evidence in any manner whatsoever or commit similar offences in future and on further condition that the petitioner, while on bail, shall meet the Officer-in-charge, Lalgola Police Station once in a week until further orders.

In the event he fails to appear before the trial court without any justifiable cause, the trial court shall be at liberty to cancel his bail automatically without reference to this court.

The application for bail, thus, stands allowed.
