And

In Re : Pannalal Pramanik

..... petitioner

Mr. Amal Krishna Samanta

....for the petitioner

Mr. Abhra Mukherjee

Mr. Dipankar Mahata

....for the State

There is a previous police complaint.

Materials in the case diary suggest that, there are disputes relating to an immovable property between the private parties.

The statements recorded under Section 164 of the Code of Criminal Procedure remain uncorroborated at this stage by other materials in the case diary.

In such circumstances, we grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

Accordingly, we direct that in the event of arrest the petitioner shall be released on bail upon furnishing a bond of Rs.10,000/-, with two sureties of like amount each, to the satisfaction of the arresting officer and also be subject to the conditions as laid down under Section 438(2) of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 and on further condition that the petitioner shall meet the Investigating Officer once a month till the conclusion of the investigation and on condition that the petitioner shall appear on every date before the jurisdictional Court on and from the date fixed for appearance of the accused and in default the jurisdictional Court will pass appropriate order to secure the presence of the petitioner in Court including cancelling the anticipatory bail granted without further reference to this Court.

This application for anticipatory bail is, thus, allowed.
