C.O. 1771 of 2023

Sattar Mallick

Vs.

Sukdeb Sardar & anr.

Md. Younush Mondal

...for the petitiones.

The petitioner is the defendant in Title Suit No. 139 of 2019, which is pending before the learned Civil Judge (Junior Division), 2nd Court, Krishnagar. The petitioner prays for expeditious disposal of the suit.

It is submitted that no interlocutory applications are pending. It is also stated that the suit is at the stage of evidence.

The prayer of the petitioner is innocuous. Neither party stands to lose if a proceeding is disposed of expeditiously. In fact, such expeditious disposal shall enure to the benefit of the parties and hence, there is no requirement for service of prior notice upon the opposite parties.

The revisional application is disposed of with a direction upon the learned court below to dispose of the suit within a period of six months from the next date fixed, upon granting adequate opportunity to the parties to contest the same.

This court has not expressed any opinion on the merits of the suit. The learned court shall proceed independently and in accordance with law.

A copy of the revisional application along with a server copy of this order be served upon the opposite parties and/or the learned advocates contesting the matter on behalf of the opposite parties in the learned court below, within a week.

The revisional application is accordingly disposed of.

There shall be no order as to costs.

Parties are to act on the server copy of this order.
