Petitioner is in custody for two years. He prays for bail.

Learned lawyer for the State submits date has been fixed for cross examination of the investigating officer.

We have considered the materials on record. Allegations involved rape of a minor girl. Trial is at its fag end.

Under such circumstances, we are not inclined to grant bail to the petitioner.

Accordingly, prayer for bail is rejected.

Trial court is requested to conclude the trial at an early date preferably within six months from the next date fixed for recording of evidence without granting unnecessary adjournments to either of the parties.
