

Item No. 60
30.06.2023
Court. No. 19
GB

C.O. 1953 of 2023

Chandratan Naskar
Vs.
Alaudiin Purkait & Ors.

Mr. Lakshminath Bhattacharya

...for the Petitioner.

The petitioner prays that the application for injunction along with the application for local inspection be disposed of expeditiously.

Considering the age of the title suit, that is, Title Suit No.175 of 2014, pending before the learned Civil Judge (Senior Division) at Diamond Harbour, South 24 Parganas and the age of the petitioner, this Court is of the view that justice would be sub served if the said applications are disposed of at an early date and thereafter the suit proceeds in accordance with law, on an urgent basis.

This Court has neither gone into the merits of the suit nor into the merits of the pending applications. An order of expeditious disposal of any litigation enures to the benefit of all the parties and hence prior service of this revisional application upon the opposite party is not required. The prayer is innocuous.

Under such circumstances, this Court directs the learned Civil Judge (Senior Division) at Diamond Harbour, South 24 Parganas to dispose of the pending applications within a period of two months from the next date fixed, without granting unnecessary adjournments to either of the parties. After disposal of the aforementioned application, the learned court shall dispose of the suit, within a year. The learned court below shall proceed in accordance with law and independently.

Accordingly, the revisional application is disposed of.

However, there will be no order as to costs.

Petitioner is directed to serve a copy of the revisional application upon the opposite parties, along with the server copy of this order.

Urgent photostat certified copy of this order, if applied for, be given to the parties on priority basis.
